Take a Walk on the Wild Side!

Date: Saturday, October 08, 2005 (Please preregister by Wednesday, October 05)
Time: 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon
Location: Clifford E. Lee Sanctuary (West of Edmonton)
Cost: Please bring $2 per child to donate to the Edmonton Nature Club

Margaret Reine, President of the Edmonton Nature Club, will take all of us curious nature-nuts on a trip of exploration and discovery through Clifford E. Lee Sanctuary. Come see what Nature does in the fall!

What to bring: insect repellent, water and/or snacks, good walking shoes.

Optional: bring binoculars, a bug or pond net, bug containers, field guides, notebook and pencil – but remember, if you bring these things, you will have to carry them with you.

Make sure you dress for the weather.

How to get there: The Canadian Nature Federation website gives these directions: "The sanctuary is 33 km southwest of Edmonton's city centre. Take Highway 16 west to the Devon overpass. Exit at Highway 60 (Devon Highway); head south for 13.2 km to Woodbend Road. Turn west (right) and drive 1.6 km to the next crossroad. Turn south (left) and drive 1.4 km until you reach a large wooden sign with a yellowhead blackbird on it."
